SITUATION REPORT #70

1600 Hours Thursday, February 2, 2012
Next SITREP 1600 Hours Thursday, February 9, 2012

SUMMARY

Gov. Bob McDonnell declared a state of emergency September 9 in response to heavy rain and flooding in Virginia resulting from remnants of Tropical Storm Lee primarily east of the I-95 corridor. As much as 20.96 inches of rain fell in the affected area September 8-9. Five fatalities were confirmed statewide.

Public Assistance

On October 7, the governor requested a 30-day deadline extension to validate current and additional damages with the Virginia Department of Transportation (VDOT) in anticipation of a request for a Public Assistance declaration. On October 13, FEMA extended the deadline to November 7 for submitting Preliminary Damage Assessments.

On November 17, FEMA approved the governor's request for a federal declaration for Public Assistance for the counties of Caroline, Essex, Fairfax, King and Queen, King George, Prince William and Westmoreland and the independent city of Alexandria.

About 19 percent of the estimated 155 project worksheets covering an estimated $300,297 in damages have been submitted for processing. Funding totaling $82,409 has been approved for six projects. The Public Assistance administrative schedule calls for completion of pending project worksheets by the end of February.
